

MARVIN A. BROTTOR, DPA, AICP

Planning and management consultant for public and private sector organizations since 1955. Wide-ranging services include land planning, site development planning, finance and budgeting, economic development, strategic planning and program design and management, including grants applications and grants management.

PRESIDENT

1966 to Present

Associated Planning and Development Services/
Marvin A. Brotter Consulting Services, Scranton, PA

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT SPECIALIST

1994 to Present

Borough of Danville, PA

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

1977 to 2000

Marywood University, Scranton, PA

DIRECTOR OF PLANNING

1960 to 1965

Bellante and Clauss Architects and Engineers, Inc., Scranton, PA

SENIOR PLANNER

1955 to 1960

I. Candeub and Associates, Newark, NJ

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- * Comprehensive and strategic planning programs including related land use regulations for more than 50 municipalities
- * Created and organized public and quasi-public agencies and consortiums
- * Prepared fiscal analyses, capital improvements programs and program budgets for public and private entities
- * Designed development plans and secured funding for residential, commercial, industrial and recreational projects
- * Administered financial services packaging diverse sources of private and government funds
- * Certified instructor for Planning Commissioner Course and for Zoning Course

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- * Achieved 100% funding rate under HUD 1974 Public Works Program
- * Recruited, organized and managed staff of 100 professionals responsible for one-third of Pennsylvania's Disaster Renewal Effort following Tropical Storm Agnes. Responsible for 0.5 billion dollar budget
- * Secured Public Housing and Section 8 projects for depressed communities
- * Created first department of planning for Bellante and Clauss

HONORS/AWARDS

Distinguished Service Award, Pennsylvania Planning Association, 1996

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

President, American Institute of Planners, Northeast PA Section, 1970-72

President, Community Services Research Institute, Scranton, PA, 1984-86

Treasurer, Pennsylvania Planning Association (PPA), 1986

Program Chairman, PPA Annual Conference, Wilkes-Barre, PA, 1985 and 2001

EDUCATION

Doctor of Public Administration (D.P.A.), Nova University

Master of Public Administration (M.P.A.), Nova University

Bachelor of Arts in Urbanism (B.A.), Brooklyn College